SIXTH RACE—Reidmore (1 to 2 and out), 1, Cobmosa (7 to 10 for place), 2, Paul Clifford 3.

The Evening World's racing selections proved profitable again to-day, as they did yesterday. Top one of the experts, selected three winners in succession in the first three events, naming the horses
one, two, as they ran. His selections were Lord Boanerges, 8 to 1, to Dead Gone, 20 to 1, and Tudor, 11 to 20. He also selected Reidmore as his one best bet. Yesterday Top named among others Queen's Souvenir, a 30 to 1 shot.

Top's selections in the Evening handicapper, again put through his one best bet, Tudor. He also picked East End, the winner of the fifth race, and Reidmore, the sixth winner. The selections of Thorp and Top are related every day in the Racing Edition of The Evening World.

BENNING RACE TRACK, March
27. Operations at Benning to-day favored the books. A couple of good breaks in the first two races put them on easy street for the balance of the day. In the opening event Quadrille was a strongly played favorite. Gold Sifter and Toodles had plenty of backing. Lord Boanerges was an 8 to 1 chance.

He and Quadrille met a few days ago
and finished on even terms with Quadrille giving Lord Boanerges nineteen pounds. To-day they met at two pounds difference.

Therefore handicappers cast out Lord Boanerges but he confounded them by rushing away with a great burst of speed and leading all the way. He won easily in new record time for the course.
Quadrille quit badly and was not in the money.

In the second race Glaucus and Blem-ber were strongly played. Glaucus cut out a hot pace, but in the last sixteenth he weakened, and Dead Gone, 20 to 1 shot, got the lead and him out a nose. The winner was ridden coolly and patiently by Englander. The third race furnished another with another winner, in Tudor, who was the first successful favorite of the day. Jack McKean beat Town Topics easily for the place.

Another Evening World Winner.
Quadrille was the choice in the opening
event, but Dead Sifter and Toodles
were strongly favored. Lord Boanerges,
at 8 to 1, was neglected. He led in the front at the start, upon his field
and was never in trouble, winning by three lengths. Englander with another
winner, in Tudor, who was the first
successful favorite of the day. Jack McKean beat Town Topics easily for the
place.

Another of Top's Long Shots.
Glaucus was the choice in the opening
event, but Dead Sifter and Toodles
were strongly favored. Lord Boanerges,
at 8 to 1, was neglected. He led in the front at the start, upon his field
and was never in trouble, winning by
three lengths. Englander with another
winner, in Tudor, who was the first
successful favorite of the day. Jack McKean beat Town Topics easily for the
place.

Glaucus opened the favorite in the second, but was out of the running because of a tremendous plunge at the start. He was driven from the race by a front end, followed by another
winner, in Tudor, who was the first
successful favorite of the day. Jack McKean beat Town Topics easily for the
place.

GALLOPS AND OTHER LATE SPORTING NEWS ON PAGE 10

In time to win by a nose. Blember was third two lengths away. Evening World long shot, Top, The Evening World expert, selected him, his second winner in succession.

Third Evening World Winner.
Tudor was the favorite to win the third. He went to the front at the start, led the race, and won easily by three lengths from Jack McKean, who saved a lot of ground at the head of the stretch where Tudor went wide and carried Town Topics out. Jack of the stretch, Town Topics, a length and a half.

This was Top's one-best bet of the day. He was third successive winning selection. He picked the horses one, two, in succession.

Garter Knot's Chase.
Gus Strauss was the choice in the Steeplechase, but he was barely able to get inside the money. Garter Knot, the second choice, went to the front from after the start, made all the running and won in a drive by a scant length from Northville, who closed strong and beat Gus Strauss ten lengths for the place.

Radtke's First Winner.
Accumulate raced to the front in the fifth and showed the way to the stretch, followed by Leashurst, East End and Nettle Carita. In the run home East End went to the front and in a dead-end drive just managed to beat Nettle Carita a head. Accumulate was third, a length away. This was Radtke's first winner of the meeting.

BURGERS CART AWAY $11,000 IN GOODS.
Over $11,000 worth of goods were stolen from the eight-story factory building at No. 2 West Fifteenth street between midnight last night and 6 o'clock this morning by burglars, who gained an entrance to the premises by cutting out glass panes from the doors of the various floors entered.
The goods taken comprise principally boxes of silk, suits and cloaks of all description, and must have formed a load which would take a very long time to collect, and which would require a large van to hold.
Despite this, the burglars got away with their booty, and so far the police have failed to find a trace of them.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 27.—The Giants and Athletics line up here to-day in an exhibition game. McGraw was anxious to win and work out his pitcher against big leaguers. Tommy Corcoran played second base at the start and Sammy Strang went out to center-field.

First Inning.
Hartzel filed lightly to Devlin. Old-time failed to design an inshoot and walked. Davis was an easy victim on three strikes. Dahlen whipped Seybold's hot one to Corcoran, forcing out Oldring. NO RUNS.

Coombs started off with great speed. Shannon died, Murphy to Davis. Murphy to Davis. Brown walked. Devlin drove a pretty single to right. Strang hit weakly to Coombs, and was out at first, both runners advancing. Brownman was out on a pretty slap and throw of Cross to Davis. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.
Murphy out, Dahlen to McGinn. Knight popped to Corcoran. Cross walked. Powers filed to Strang. NO RUNS.
McGinn stroled. Davis failed to cover first on Powers' throw and McGinn walked to second. Dahlen sacrificed, nearly to McGinn, threw him out at first. McGinn going to third. McGinn was out at plate. Coombs to Knight. To Powers on Corcoran's easy bouncer. Corcoran took second on the play. McGinnity failed. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.
McGinnity's raise caused Coombs to fan. Hartzel out. Corcoran to McGinn. Devlin made good play to McGinn. Oldring's warm walk. NO RUNS.
Shannon took second on McGinn's fumble of an easy bouncer. Brown fanned. Seybold made a good running catch of Devlin's long fly. Shannon stole second. McGinn went to third. Strang's puz-zler with one hand and passed it to Davis. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.
Davis hit a deep left for two bags. Seybold sacrificed and was touched out by McGinn on the line. Davis went to third on the play and scored on Murphy's safe hit to right. Smith singled through short. Cross sacrificed and died. Brownman to McGinn. Powers out. Corcoran boosted to second. McGinn checked the force of the ball. ONE RUN.

Bresnahan bunted out. McGinn popped a hot one over Cross's head for a single. Dahlen's lick was too much for Murphy. Corcoran boosted to second. Donlin batted for McGinnity. Mike smashed the first balloon a line to left and it bounded over Hartzel's head, scoring McGinn and Dahlen. Mike got three bases. Shannon out. Murphy to Davis. TWO RUNS.
Ames went in to pitch for New York at this stage.

Fifth Inning.
Coombs out, Ames to McGinn. A weak catch. Hartzel fanned. Ames' drops. Oldring hammered one past third for a single. Oldring out bunting. Bresnahan to Corcoran. NO RUNS.

"SILENT" SMITH DIES ON WEDDING TRIP; LEAVES RICHEST OF WIDOWS

Millionaire Taken Ill on Yacht in Which He Sailed With Bride
Who Was Divorced Wife of William R. Stewart.

A cablegram received to-day from Tokio, Japan, announces the death of James Henry Smith, of New York. Mr. Smith—better known to the general public as "Silent" Smith—was one of the wealthiest men in this city.

At the time of his death he was on a bridal tour of the world. He married the divorced wife of William Rhinelander Stewart, of New York, on Sept. 13 last, and started on his world tour soon after with his wife and the Duke and Duchess of Manchester in the magnificent Drexel steam yacht, Margarita.

A cable message received at Mr. Smith's office in this city to-day contained the information that the party which accompanied Mr. Smith while in Yokohama for San Francisco April 10, bringing Mr. Smith's body. They will be met in San Francisco by Eugene J. Sherman, of Cincinnati, father of the Duchess of Manchester. It was stated at Mr. Smith's office that his death was due to heart disease.

The last heard of Mr. Smith was at Rangoon, India. In the party at that time was Mrs. Smith's daughter, Anita Stewart, The Duke of Manchester was not in very good health and Mr. Smith had suffered a chill at Agra. The plague, cholera and smallpox were raging in Burma at the time the Smith yacht touched there. When the party left Rangoon Mr. Smith expressed his intention of pushing on to Singapore and getting to Japan in the shortest possible time. Mr. Smith and his wife and the other members of the party were traveling on a schedule that would have brought them to New York about the middle of May. It appears that he was taken ill on the voyage up the Chinese coast of Former Supreme Court Justice Notifies Justice Fitzgerald That His Health and Business Will Prevent His Serving on Insanity Board.

JURY IS DISMISSED UNTIL NEXT MONDAY.

Inference Is That the Commission Will Have Completed Its Work by That Time—
Thaw Appears to Be Cheerful.

There was a sudden break late this afternoon in the arrangements for the first hearing by the Commission in Insanity to inquire into the mental condition of Harry K. Thaw. Just as the Commission was about to organize the following letter was received:

"O'BRIEN, BOARDMAN, PLATT & DUNNING,
No. 2 Rector Street,
New York, March 27, 1907.

Honorable James Fitzgerald, New York City.
My Dear Judge Fitzgerald: When you honored me by asking me to consent to become a member of the commission in re Thaw, and suggested that by so doing I would be rendering a public service, I acceded to your request, notwithstanding my disinclination to again assume public duties.

Upon reflection, however, I am reluctantly forced to the conclusion that, in view of the present condition of my health and of professional engagements previously accepted and involving obligations to others which I cannot evade, I must decline the service, much as I regret this decision.

In arriving at this determination, I assure you that I have not undervalued the importance to the public of the service which you have so kindly requested me to undertake, and my conclusion has been reached only after careful consideration of the present condition of my health and other obligations previously assumed by me. With sentiments of esteem and appreciation of your expression of confidence, I remain gratefully yours,

MORGAN J. O'BRIEN.
DAVID M'CLURE APPOINTED.

Immediately on receipt of this letter Justice Fitzgerald got into communication with Mr. David McClure, who agreed to serve on the commission, and the Justice made the following order appointing Mr. McClure in place of Mr. O'Brien:

"It appearing that Hon. Morgan J. O'Brien, heretofore appointed a member of a commission to inquire into the mental condition of the defendant, Harry K. Thaw, declines to serve for reasons shown in his letter hereto annexed, the order herein made and entered on the 26th day of March, 1907, is hereby amended by substituting the name of Hon. David McClure, who is hereby appointed in the place and stead of said Hon. Morgan J. O'Brien, otherwise said order to remain in full force and effect."

"JAMES FITZGERALD."
MR. M'CLURE SWORN IN.
Mr. McClure came to the Criminal Courts Building, where he met Justice Fitzgerald and the two remaining members of the commission, Mr.
